This story explores the lives of sixteen-year-olds Denim Mitchell and Andr  Patterson, who have shared a sizzling attraction to each other ever since they were kids. Denim yearns to date Andr , known by his friends as Dr . However, Denim's parents are doing everything in their power to keep the heat of the passion between the two teens under wraps. Dr , a rising basketball star and budding artist, has a glorious future ahead of him. Unfortunately, rumor has it that he's involved in activities that could ruin his chance of ever hooking up with Denim or making his dreams of going to college and the NBA. Denim realizes her chances of being with Dr  could be shattered if her parents find out that she violated their trust. One lie, one party, and one bullet change the course of both of their lives forever.
